

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

PENSION REFORM – HOW TO PROCEED?

The 3rd International Scientific Conference organized by the University of Finance and Administration, Prague

27th November, 2012, 9:00–19:00, Congress Centre of the Czech National Bank (Praha 1, Senovážné nám. 30)

09:00–09:05	OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE – MODERATOR PETR BUDINSKÝ
09:05–09:10	Bohuslava Šenkýřová – Welcome speech (Rector of University of Finance and Administration)
09:10–10:10	KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Edward Palmer (Uppsala University; Social Insurance Agency, Stockholm) Public Pension Schemes in a Changing Pension World
10:10–11:10	Radek Urban (Deputy Minister of Finance) Pension Reform Just before Launching
11:10–12:00	Jaroslav Vostatek (University of Finance and Administration, Prague) Czech Pension Reform: What Further?" Preliminary version of his paper is available at http://www.vfsf.cz/prilohy/konference/vostatek_czech_pension_reform_2012.pdf
12:00–13:00	Lunch / Press Conference runs in parallel
13:00–14:00	PRESENTATIONS AND DISCUSSION (SELECTION ON THE BASIS OF CALL FOR PAPERS) – MODERATOR JAROSLAV VOSTATEK Bettina Kahil (University of Lausanne) Is the Swiss Pension System as Good as it Seems? Some Aspects of Current Reforms Georgios Symeonidis (Hellenic Actuarial Authority) The Greek Pension Reform Strategy 2010-2012 Tomáš Machanec (Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs) Czech Pension System Long-term Sustainability and Its Envisaged Future Adjustment Pavol Ochotnický (University of Economics, Bratislava) Principles of Reform for Sustainable Pension System Ján Šebo et al (Matej Bel University, Banská Bystrica) Less Known Risks of Capital Pillars
14:00–15:00	Panel discussion – Michal Knapp (OVB), Jiří Šindelář (USF), Michal Petrman (Deloitte), Jiří Paták (chytryhonza.cz), Patrik Nacher (bankovnipoplatky.com)
15:00–15:30	Coffee break
15:30–17:30	PRESENTATIONS AND DISCUSSION (SELECTION ON THE BASIS OF CALL FOR PAPERS) – MODERATOR VOJTĚCH KREBS Radoslaw Kurach (Wroclaw University of Economics) How to Improve Pension Funds Asset Allocation Policy? Four Policy Recommendations from a Polish Perspective Marek Szczepański (Poznan University of Technology) Design of Supplementary Pension Schemes in Poland and its Impact on Longevity Risk Jaroslav Šulc (CMCTU, Prague) Macroeconomic Risks of Mishandling of the Pension Reform and How to Face Them Petr Mach (University of Finance and Administration, Prague) A Case for a Voluntary Opt-out from the State Pension Vít Samek (CMCTU, Prague) Trade Unions and Pension Savings Schemes Herbert Heissler (University of Finance and Administration, Prague) Analysis of Extreme Models of Old-Age Pensions Jiří Šatava (IDEA, CERGE-EI) Czech Pension System is at Crossroads: Who May Benefit from the Transition to the Second Pillar? Jiří Šindelář (USF CR) Perspectives and Difficulties of Financial Distribution in the Czech Pension Reform Jana Kotěšovcová (University of Finance and Administration, Prague) Development of the Paid-out Benefits from the Supplementary Pension Insurance in the Horizon of 30 and 40 Years Petra Škarydová (University of Finance and Administration, Prague) Pension Reform - and what the Youth Think About It?
17:30–18:30	Buffet

Partners

Media Partners

Organizers

